Dear Souders Families:

We are always looking for student leaders. One such opportunity is pictured at the right. Our students are working with their kindergarten buddies.

We also look for opportunities to form partnerships with community businesses and universities. Otterbein University students and professors worked to teach our students about coding and circuits.

Below: Students working to complete circuits..

From Pam Steele and Souders PTO: Candy Cane Lane(Holiday Shop) will be here before you know it (December 17&18) please make sure you have your background check done if you plan to volunteer. If you're new to Souders it's where the kids get to shop for any or all family members including dogs and cats. Everything is $2. I have over 5000 items so far.

Quote of the Week:

“Just because you don’t see the impact, doesn’t mean there is no impact.”

Brian Kight

The state budget bill had a language change to HB410, regarding student attendance. The change took effect in October. “Medically” excused absences no longer are counted in chronic absenteeism, so if you have a doctor’s note, then it doesn’t count toward hours of absence. The office must receive a copy of the doctor’s note for the absence to be medically excused.

Calling all artists! It's that time again for your chance to be a published artist in the yearbook! Starting next week, Souders students will be receiving an entry form from their teachers to take home.

When creating your design, please remember

- create your design in a COLOR medium such as crayons, markers or colored pencils (press firmly)
- use the specific form for any art entry and create your design below the dotted lines
- make sure your design is vertical (horizontal art submitted will not be eligible)
- keep any text or words 1" (one-inch) inside all margins in your design
- be sure to include the school name and year in your design
- this year's theme is KINDNESS!

Entries are due November 8th, 2019. They can be turned into the office, your teacher, or given directly to the art teacher, Miss Hahn.
