A Note to You

AAAAHHH!!!! October 1st is HERE!! Hallelujah! This is the time when routines are in place, schedules are set, and we start rocking and rolling. Allll the fun things are going to start happening... beginning with our homegrown pep rally on Friday morning. It's just us and the kids but we are going to get them PUMPED for the game so we can see most of our families at the Homecoming Carnival on Friday night. Hang onto your hats because these next three months are the GREATEST! We're gonna work hard and play hard. Thanks for sharing your child(ren) with us each day. We cherish them and you! See you soon and Go Eagles!! -Kim. :)
