A note from Mr. Cox...

What a great week at Souders! The collaboration between our PTO and our Souders staff made the best Right to Read week ever! The students were into the mystery theme. They wanted to know if I knew who dun it? I offered to provide clues for a small price! We also had daily themes, a bookmark design contest and daily guess that book contest. Ask your child about the fun week!

Souders Spotlight...3rd Grade

This week in third grade, some of our friends from DACC created an awesome experience for us to learn about all things architecture and design! Our kids got the chance to research, google meet with an actual architect, and will be building their own building that they designed themselves out of toothpicks and marshmallows.

IMPORTANT: Please send your student to school with a coat. If you need a coat, we will be happy to help.
